

Rabbi Shmuly Begun - Born and raised in the Cheviot Hills community of Los Angeles, Rabbi Shmuly Begun spent his formative years immersed in Jewish outreach and learning. His journey took him across the globe, where he practiced and studied in diverse communities in France, London, New York, Toronto, Ukraine, Russia, and Italy. He was ordained as a rabbi by Rabbi Zalman Yaroslavsky and later graduated as a certified rabbinic judge from the Rabbinical Law School of America.

In 2022, Rabbi Begun married his wife, Mushka. They have two children, Leah and Mendel. In 2024, they established Chabad of Tierrasanta. In addition to his role at Chabad, he is also a Judaic Studies faculty member at Torah High School.