

Joni Conner is a practicing multidisciplinary artist, photographer, and naturalist. She tells stories using photography, painting, places, people, and moments in time. Joni received her degree in Studio Art with an emphasis on Painting and Photography from San Diego State University. Joni has worked as a freelance photographer and artist for a number of years, as well as previous employment at The San Diego Museum of Art and San Diego State University. She also previously taught Digital Photography for Torah High and is very excited to return.