

Maddison was born in the United Kingdom and became a student at Chabad Hebrew Academy after moving to the United States in 2008. Graduating from Torrey Pines High School in 2016, Maddison received her Bachelor's degree in Sociology from the University of Arizona in 2020. In 2023, she decided to go back to school, recently graduating with her Master's in Education from Alliant International University. Now, Maddison spends her time going to farmer's markets, watching movies, and spending time with her family and friends. She also works as an Office Manager at Beth Jacob Congregation. Maddison is incredibly excited to join the Torah High team and spread her wings in education.
